BOARD CHARTER

BOARD CHARTER

1. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVE

- 1.1 The Board of Directors of CYL Corporation Berhad (the “Board”) is responsible in ensuring that CYL Corporation Berhad (the “Company”) and its subsidiary (the “Group”) are well managed at all times. The Board takes full responsibility for the overall direction and performance of the Group. In this regard, the Board Charter shall constitute and form an integral part of each Director’s duties and responsibilities.
- 1.2 The purpose of the Board Charter is to ensure that all Board members are aware of their duties and responsibilities as Board members. The Board Charter would act as a source reference and primary induction literature to provide insights to existing and prospective members of the Board.
- 1.3 The guiding principles of the Board Charter include the following:-
- (a) Companies Act 2016 (“Act”);
 - (b) Constitution of CYL;
 - (c) Main Market Listing Requirements (“MMLR”) of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“Bursa Securities”);
 - (d) Malaysian Code of Corporate Governance (“MCCG”); and
 - (e) Any other applicable laws or regulatory requirements.

In the event of a conflict between the Constitution of the Company and the Board Charter, the provisions of the former shall have precedence subject to compliance with the legislation and regulatory requirements.

2. BOARD SIZE AND COMPOSITION

- 2.1 The size of the Board shall be in accordance with the Constitution of the Company. The Board shall, with the assistance of the Nomination Committee (“NC”), review the size and composition of the Board from time to time, to determine the impact on the Board’s effectiveness and ensure the Board is periodically refreshed.
- 2.2 The Constitution of the Company provides for a minimum of two (2) Directors.
- 2.3 In accordance with the MMLR of Bursa Securities, at least two (2) Directors or one-third (1/3rd) of the Board, whichever is the higher, are Independent Non-Executive Directors. If the number of Directors is not three (3) or a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third (1/3rd) must be used.
- 2.4 In the event of any vacancy in the Board, resulting in non-compliance with paragraph 2.3 above, the Company must fill the vacancy within three (3) months from the occurrence of the event.
- 2.5 The Board shall endeavour to have at least 30% women directors.
- 2.6 The Board shall consist of qualified individuals with diverse professional background, skills, extensive experience and knowledge necessary to govern the Company.

- 2.7 Appointment of a new Director is a matter for consideration and decision by the Board, upon the recommendation from the NC. In making these recommendations, the NC will assess the suitability of candidates, taking into account the qualifications, credentials, core competencies vis-à-vis the composition, the required mix of skills, expertise and experience, character, professionalism, integrity, competencies, time commitment and other qualities, which the potential candidate would bring to the Board to effectively discharge his/her role as Director of the Company.
- 2.8 No person shall be appointed, re-appointed, elected or re-elected as a Director on the Board or continue to serve as a Director if the person is or becomes an active politician. A person is considered an “active politician” if he/she is a Member of Parliament, State Assemblyman or holds a position at the Supreme Council or division level in a political party.

3. TENURE OF DIRECTORS

- 3.1 Pursuant to the Constitution of the Company, a new Director appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board shall hold office only until the next Annual General Meeting (“AGM”) at which he/she will retire and be available for re-appointment. One-third (1/3rd) of the Board, or if their number is not a multiple of three (3), then the number nearest to one-third (1/3rd), shall retire from office and be eligible for re-election at every AGM. All Board members are subject to retirement by rotation at least once in every three (3) years and be eligible for re-election.
- 3.2 The Board, with the assistance of the NC, will assess the Directors’ standing for re-election. The re-election of a Director shall be subject to satisfactory evaluation of the Director’s performance and contribution to the Board.
- 3.3 The tenure of an Independent Non-Executive Director shall not exceed a term limit of nine (9) years. Upon completion of the nine (9) years, an Independent Non-Executive Director, may continue to serve on Board as a Non-Independent Non-Executive Director.
- 3.4 If the Board intends to retain an Independent Non-Executive Director beyond nine (9) years, the Board shall provide justification and seek annual shareholders’ approval through a two-tier voting process.

4. DIRECTORS’ TIME COMMITMENT

- 4.1 A Director shall not hold more than five (5) directorships in listed issuers as prescribed by Bursa Securities.
- 4.2 The Board should obtain this commitment from Directors prior to their appointment. Every Director must attend at least 50% of the total Board of Directors’ meetings held during a financial year. A Director shall vacate office if he/she absent for more than 50% of the total Board meetings held during the financial year.

- 4.3 A Director may accept appointments to other boards, provided that such appointments do not result in any conflict of interest with the Group and does not detrimentally affect the Director's performance as a Board member. The Director shall notify the Chairman before accepting any new directorships and the notification shall provide for an indication of time that will be spent on the new appointment.

5. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

5.1 The Board

In order to ensure effective discharge of the Board's functions, the Board assumes, amongst others, the following roles and responsibilities:-

- (a) together with Senior Management, promote good corporate governance culture within the Company which reinforces ethical, prudent and professional behaviour;
- (b) review, challenge and decide on Management's proposals for the Company, and monitor its implementation by Management;
- (c) ensure that the strategic plan of the Company supports long-term value creation and includes strategies on economic, environmental and social considerations underpinning sustainability;
- (d) supervise and assess Management's performance to determine whether the business is being properly managed;
- (e) ensure there is a sound framework for internal controls and risk management;
- (f) understand the principal risks of the Company's business and recognise that business decisions involve the taking of appropriate risks;
- (g) set the risk appetite within which the Board expects Management to operate and ensure that there is an appropriate risk management framework to identify, analyse, evaluate, manage and monitor significant financial and non-financial risks;
- (h) ensure Senior Management has the necessary skills and experience, and there are measures in place to provide for the orderly succession of Board and Senior Management;
- (i) ensure the Company has in place procedures to enable effective communication with stakeholders;
- (j) ensure all Directors are able to understand financial statements and form a view on the information presented; and
- (k) ensure the integrity of the Company's financial and non-financial reporting.

5.2 Board Committees

The Board has established the following Board Committees:-

- (a) Audit Committee;
- (b) NC; and
- (c) Remuneration Committee ("RC").

The Board Committees operate under their own defined Terms of Reference and are authorised by the Board to deal with and deliberate on matters delegated to them within their Terms of Reference.

The Chairman of the respective Board Committees shall report to the Board on the outcome of the Board Committee meetings and update the Board on significant issues and concerns discussed and where appropriate, make the necessary recommendations to the Board.

In addition to the above Board Committees, the Board may establish ad-hoc Board Committees as may be deemed appropriate to assist the Board in carrying out its duties and responsibilities.

The Board is collectively responsible for any decision taken by any Board Committee. A Board Committee may only perform the tasks delegated to it by the Board and should not exceed the authority conferred on it by the Board. Decisions which by law should be made by the Board shall not be delegated to a Board Committee.

5.3 The Chairman

The Chairman shall be responsible for the following:-

- (a) leading the Board in setting its values, ethical standards and good corporate governance practices in the Group;
- (b) developing corporate strategies;
- (c) attaining long-term growth objectives of the Group;
- (d) mentoring the Managing Director;
- (e) leading Board discussions, encourage active participation and allowing dissenting views to be freely expressed;
- (f) setting the agenda for Board Meetings with assistance of the Company Secretary and ensuring all relevant issues for the effective running of the Group's businesses are on the agenda;
- (g) managing the interface between Board and Management;
- (h) ensuring proper flow of information to the Board, reviewing adequacy and timing of documentary materials in support of Management's proposal and review of performance of the Company and/or Group;
- (i) ensuring effective communication with shareholders and relevant stakeholders;
- (j) ensuring compliance with all relevant regulations and legislations; and
- (k) presiding over the Board and general meetings of the Company.

The Chairman shall allow every board resolution to be voted on and ensure the will of the majority prevails. In determining policies matters, he should ensure that the following are carried out:-

- (i) all Directors are properly briefed on issues arising at Board meetings; and
- (ii) there is sufficient time allowed for discussion on complex or contentious issues and where appropriate, arrange informal meetings beforehand to enable thorough preparations.

5.4 The Individual Directors

All Directors are expected to comply with their legal, statutory and equitable duties and obligations when discharging their responsibilities as Directors.

Broadly these include:-

- (a) demonstrating financial literacy required for a proper understanding of the Group's activities and associated risks, maintaining a sound understanding of the business and keeping abreast of relevant developments to ensure they are able to discharge their duties and responsibilities effectively;
- (b) reading the financial statement of the Company and carefully consider whether the disclosures are consistent with their own knowledge of the Company's affairs;
- (c) exercising reasonable care, skill and diligence that commensurate with their respective knowledge, area of expertise and experience when carrying out their duties;
- (d) objectively discharging their duties and responsibilities, and exercising their powers for a proper purpose as fiduciaries in the interests of the Company;
- (e) acting with integrity and leading by example;
- (f) devoting time to prepare for and attending Board and Board Committee and general meetings;
- (g) not to make use of any information acquired by virtue of their position to gain directly or indirectly an improper advantage for themselves or for any other person or to cause detriment to the Company; and
- (h) avoiding conflict of interests. Directors shall, as soon as practicable after the relevant facts have come to their knowledge, declare the nature of their interest at a meeting of the Directors of the Company. Each Director shall give notice to the Company of such events and matters relating to him/her as may be necessary or expedient to enable the Company and its officers to comply with the requirements of the Act.

5.5 The Independent Non-Executive Directors

The Independent Non-Executive Directors shall provide independent judgment and objectivity without being subordinated to operational considerations. The Independent Non-Executive Directors help to ensure that the interests of all shareholders, and not only the interests of a particular group, and that all relevant matters and issues are objectively and impartially considered by the Board.

The roles of an Independent Non-Executive Director, amongst others, are as follows:-

- (a) provide objective and independent judgement on issues;
- (b) ensure that the interests of the Company, shareholders and stakeholders are well taken into account;
- (c) mitigate any potential conflict of interest situation that may arise in the governance of the Group;
- (d) monitor the areas of discussion, notably those where potential conflict of interest situation may arise; and
- (e) provide a check and balance to the Board.

An Independent Director must immediately disclose to the Board in the event of any change in his/her circumstances that may affect his/her objectivity and/or status as an Independent Director. In such case, the Board must review the Director's designation as an Independent Director.

5.6 The Senior Independent Non-Executive Director

The Board may appoint a Senior Independent Non-Executive Director. The Senior Independent Non-Executive Director shall:-

- (a) act as a sounding board for the Chairman;
- (b) act as an intermediary for other Directors when necessary; and
- (c) be the point of contact for shareholders and other stakeholders.

5.7 The Managing Director

The Board has delegated to the Managing Director, the authority to manage the day-to-day affairs of the Company and the authority to control the affairs of the Company in relation to all matters other than those matters that are reserved for the Board in the Board Charter.

The Managing Director has the authority to sub-delegate such authority and power to Senior Management as he/she may determine from time to time for the effective management and performance of the Group.

The role of the Managing Director, with the support of Executive Directors and Senior Management, is to:-

- (a) oversee the day-to-day operations of the Group and implement the strategies, plans, budgets and policies approved by the Board;
- (b) develop and recommend to the Board the strategic business plans, annual operating plans and budgets that support the Group's short-term and long-term strategies in consultation with the Chairman;
- (c) monitor the performance of the Group against the performance and sustainability targets and reporting to the Board;
- (d) provide strong leadership to employees of the Group;
- (e) act as a liaison between the Board and Management;
- (f) drive strategic management of material sustainability matters;
- (g) assess business opportunities which are of potential benefit to the Group;
- (h) assess the principal risks of the Group and ensuring that these risks are being monitored and managed;
- (i) communicate effectively with shareholders, employees, Government authorities, other stakeholders and the public;
- (j) keep the Board fully informed of all important aspects of the Group's operations and bring material and other relevant matters to the attention of the Board in an accurate and timely manner;
- (k) ensure effective internal controls and legal compliance and governance measures are deployed; and
- (l) act within specific authorities delegated by the Board and ensure the limits of authority accorded by the Board are observed.

5.8 Senior Management

Senior Management's role and responsibilities include the following:-

- (a) together with the Managing Director, formulate the corporate strategy for the Board's approval. Once approved, implement it accordingly;
- (b) assume day-to-day responsibility for the Company's conformance with relevant laws and regulations and its compliance framework;
- (c) achieve the performance targets set by the Board;
- (d) formulate, implement and update the Group's standard operating policies and procedures;
- (e) be alert to relevant trends in the Group's industry and operating environment;
- (f) drive strategic management of material sustainability matters;
- (g) develop, implement and manage the Group's risk management and internal control frameworks; and
- (h) provide accurate, timely and clear information to the Board to enable the Board to effectively perform its responsibilities.

- 14.3 The responsibilities of a Company Secretary shall include:-
- (a) advising the Board on its roles and responsibilities;
 - (b) advising the Board on corporate disclosures and compliance with the Act and MMLR of Bursa Securities;
 - (c) ensuring that Board procedures and applicable rules are observed during meetings;
 - (d) attending and recording minutes of the Board and Board Committee meetings and facilitating communications;
 - (e) maintaining records of the Board and Board Committees and ensuring effective management of the Company's statutory records;
 - (f) monitoring corporate governance developments and assisting the Board in applying corporate governance practices to meet the Board's needs and stakeholders' expectations;
 - (g) managing processes pertaining to the AGMs and general meetings; and
 - (h) carrying out other functions as may be directed by the Board from time to time.

15. ACCESS TO INDEPENDENT ADVICE AND INFORMATION

- 15.1 Board members shall:-
- (a) have full and unrestricted access to any information pertaining to the Company or the Group that is required for the discharge of its duties;
 - (b) have full and unrestricted access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary; and
 - (c) be able to obtain independent professional or other advice in the furtherance of their duties and responsibilities at the expense of the Company.

- 15.2 If a Director considers such advice necessary for the discharge of his/her duties and responsibilities as Director and, for the benefit of the Company, such Director shall first discuss it with the Chairman and, having done so, be free to proceed, where appropriate.
- 15.3 Subject to prior approval of the Chairman, the expense of the advice will be reimbursed by the Company but the Director will ensure, so far as is practicable, that the expense is reasonable.
- 15.4 Independent advice sought shall exclude those of personal interests relating to the Director's personal disputes in matters that are not related to or affect the Board or the Company as a whole.

16. RELATIONSHIP WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND STAKEHOLDERS

- 16.1 The Board shall communicate and interact regularly via different platforms such as Company's AGMs, media interviews, road shows, announcements to Bursa Securities and other social media in updating the status of Company's performance, direction and strategies to shareholders and stakeholders.
- 16.2 AGMs and Extraordinary General Meetings (collectively "General Meetings") of the Company are to be conducted in an efficient manner and serve as important channel for shareholders communication. Key elements for this include the supply of comprehensive and timely information to shareholders and the encouragement of active participation at the General Meetings.
- 16.3 The Board will focus its efforts on the following best practices to enhance the effectiveness of the General Meetings:-
 - (a) ensure the notice of AGM is given at least twenty-eight (28) days before the date of the AGM;
 - (b) all Directors are to attend the General Meetings;
 - (c) ensure that each item of special business included in the notice of AGM is accompanied by a full explanation of the effects of the proposed resolution;
 - (d) ensure that the notice of AGM states which Directors are standing for election or appointment, with a brief description on their age, relevant experience, designation in the Company, list of directorships, date of appointment to the Board, membership in any Board Committees, details of any interest, position or relationship that might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, in a material respect their capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company as a whole and whether the Board is in support of the re-election or appointment and the reasons;
 - (e) ensure that the Chairman of the General Meetings provides reasonable time for discussion at the General Meetings;
 - (f) ensure that General Meetings support meaningful engagement between the Board, Senior Management and shareholders;
 - (g) ensure that the resolutions set out in the notice of General Meetings are voted by poll;

- (h) ensure that at least one (1) scrutineer is appointed to validate the votes cast at each of the General Meetings. Such scrutineer must not be an officer of the Company or its related corporation, and must be independent of the person undertaking the polling process;
- (i) ensure that there is a channel of communication for feedback and queries from shareholders; and
- (j) ensure minutes of the General Meetings will be circulated to shareholders or uploaded onto the Company's website no later than thirty (30) business days after the General Meetings.

16.4 The Board shall also implement a corporate disclosure policy which would be applied to the Company and the Group. The objective of the Company's Corporate Disclosure Policy is to have in place an efficient procedure for management of information which promotes accountability for the disclosure and dissemination of material information to the investing public and in turn build good investor relations with the investing public. The Policy is made available for reference in the Company's website at www.cylcorporation.com.
